

ANTIWAR PACT SUCCESS SEEN

President Coolidge Feels Plan Will Win

Secretary Kellogg Expected
Soon With Facts

Fishing Challenge Received by Executive

SUPERIOR (Wis.) June 29. (AP)—President Coolidge is confident that negotiations now under way with fourteen foreign powers for a multilateral pact condemning war will reach a successful conclusion this summer. A draft treaty to this effect, he thinks, should be ready for the Senate's consideration when Congress reconvenes next December.

President Coolidge, however, has had no opportunity for extensive communication with Secretary of State Kellogg since the latter dispatched to the powers involved his latest draft of the covenant, under which the chief nations of the world would announce as an instrument of national policy and would agree to settle future differences by peaceful methods.

TO CONFER WITH KELLOGG
The Chief Executive will be given an opportunity to discuss this question exclusively with Secretary Kellogg in July when the latter is expected to visit the summer White House.

Secretary Kellogg's visit is expected to be followed by one from Herbert M. Lord, Director of the Budget, who will bring his recommendations for the 1940 budget. The President expects this visit to be early in August.

President Coolidge is still in the dark about Secretary Hoover's movements. He expects the Republican nominee for President, however, to stop at Cedar Island lodge on his way to Palm Beach, Fla., or on his way back east later in the summer.

The President has as yet decided on no successor to Secretary Hoover and Work when they shall resign from the Department of Commerce and Interior, respectively. Mr. Coolidge has been giving no thought to his own plans after March 4. He feels next inauguration day will be early enough to start thinking of how he shall employ his private life.

SON EXPECTED

At present he is anticipating a visit from his son John. The latter's arrival from the east has been postponed one day and is now scheduled for Sunday or Monday. Mr. Coolidge hopes his son will appreciate the summer White House as much as he does himself. In this connection the President made known today his appreciation of the welcome he has received from the eagerness of all in this region to make his stay pleasant.

After learning of the nomination of Gov. Smith of New York for Democratic President of the United States, the President attended to the first engagements made for him since his arrival here. One of his engagements today consisted of receiving a delegation representing the Upper Mississippi Barge Line Corporation which thanked him for his efforts in promoting river navigation and especially for approving a bill at the last session of Congress increasing to $15,000,000 the government stock in the inland waterways corporation. C. G. Webber presented Mr. Coolidge with a scroll of thanks.

CHALLENGER RECEIVED

Mr. Coolidge also received a forty-pound mailman's envelope by V. E. Root of Harvard, Wis. Root challenged the Chief Executive to equal such a catch.

James W. Good of Iowa, Secretary Hoover's convention manager, passed through Superior today on his way from Chicago to his summer home 150 miles northwest of here. He called upon Everett Sanders, secretary to the President, but said he would not see Mr. Coolidge. A delegation of St. Paul and Minneapolis men headed by H. C. Briggs, past-president of the St. Paul Association, missed an engagement with Mr. Coolidge today. They flew here from the Twin Cities, but were delayed and landed in Superior after Mr. Coolidge had left his office for the day.

JOHN COOLIDGE SPENDS DAY IN OLD HOME TOWN

NORTHAMPTON (Mass.) June 29. (AP)—John Coolidge, son of the President, and Mrs. Coolidge, spent today in his old home town before leaving tonight to join his parents at the summer White House at Brimley, Wis. He arrived here in the forenoon from Plainville, Ct. where since his graduation from Amherst College the 18th inst. he had been the guest of Gov. and Mrs. Truman of Connecticut and their daughter, Florence.

Young Coolidge called on his grandmother, Mrs. Lemira Goodness, who has been a patient at the Dickinson Hospital here since December 11, 1927. He lunched at the Coolidge home where Mrs. Alice Goodness acts as housekeeper as in the days when the President and Mrs. Coolidge resided in Northampton.

Other guests at the luncheon were Lieutenant-Commander Joel T. Boone of the White House medical staff, Mrs. Boone and their daughter, Susanne. Commander Boone came here last night from Boston, where the Presidential yacht Mayflower is in dry dock, returning to Boston tonight.

Daughter Gives Blood to Father

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29. (AP)—Miss Florence Goodness, society debutante of this city, today gave her blood to her father to aid him in his battle against death. Henry R. Goodness, mining engineer and railroad builder, has a fighting chance for recovery as a result of his daughter's sacrifice. Goodness is well known in the Orient for his railroad-building activities.

BROADWAY'S NIGHT CLUBS SUFFER RAID

Seventy-five Arrested in Sweep of Federal Agents
on Fifteen Places

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—The Broadway theater district was thrown into a furor early today when more than 100 Federal prohibition agents raided fifteen of the most popular night clubs. More than seventy-five arrests were made among the owners and employees of the various establishments, and the agents said they had seized a quantity of liquor.

The raids were well timed with merrymakers as the agents operating in squads of six and more descended almost simultaneously on the places. Returns from the Democratic convention at Houston being received at many of the clubs and the raids occurred almost at the same moment that Gov. Smith was nominated.

Guests were ordered to leave by the agents, who cautioned them to pay their checks before departing. The places raided were Tuna Club, Blue Room Club, Furnace Club, Don Royal, Jungle Club, Beaux Arts Club, European Club, La Fret Club, the Night Club, Mink Club, Merry-Go-Round Club, Helen Morgan Club, Charn Club, the Silver Slipper and an unnamed one.

The raids were admitted to the clubs by follow agents who, attired in evening dress, had gone to the places earlier in the night in the guise of guests. These agents asserted that in many cases purchases of liquor were made.

Jeanne Eagels

Asks Divorce to End Love Match

CHICAGO, June 29. (AP)—Jeanne Eagels, stage actress, brought suit in Superior Court today to end the love match that was to have lasted "forever." She asked a divorce from Edward Harris Gay, whom she married at Stamford, Ct., August 27, 1922.

Miss Eagels charged her husband with treating her as he treated the gridiron foes of Yale in his days of football stardom. Under the allegations of "extreme and repeated cruelty," she listed two over-alls: On January 15, 1928, her husband was charged with attacking her, slapping her violently and otherwise mistreating her. On November 4, 1927, the date they separated, according to the bill, she said she struck her in the face with his fist.

When the couple was married three years ago, the actress declared it was a love match "that will last forever—it's that kind of an affair."

Miss Boll Will

Sail to Europe

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—Miss Mabel Boll, who abandoned a projected trans-Atlantic flight at Harbor Grace, N. F., when Miss Amelia Earhart flew to Wales, has booked passage on the Ile de France, sailing at midnight.

Miss Boll is going to Paris where she will seek a plane and crew for a westward flight across the Atlantic.

PARLEY TO BE TODAY

Peach Growers and Cannery Will Meet Governor's Committee

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29. (AP)—Peach growers and cannery of California will take their differences before Gov. Young's conference committee tomorrow.

This announcement was made today by Francis McKinney, vice-president of the Cannery's League of California, whose operating committee will initiate the conference with representatives of the California Canning Peach Growers' Association.

"We were thrashed out our problems individually," said McKinney, "but a collective agreement must be reached."

The situation, with the growers demanding a $25-a-ton flat price in the face of an estimated pack of nearly 400,000 tons, far in excess of last year, is reported grave.

Cannery say they probably will be unable to meet the price, which is higher than last year's average of $25.50 a ton. Price and a method of grading down the pack will be the primary objects of the session of the Governor's committee, it was indicated.

ALIENISTS TO STUDY

STRANGLER OF BABY

OAKLAND, June 29. (AP)—A thorough examination of Erna Janeschek, 17-year-old confessed baby killer, will be held by alienists to determine her mentality. The Public Defender will act as her attorney in the proceedings, and said today he probably will ask for a continuance of from thirty to sixty days in her arraignment before Juvenile Court so an exhaustive study may be conducted by specialists. The girl strangled 1-year-old Diana Lilienkrantz to death Wednesday morning because she did not like the child's mother, police said.

To raise funds for church improvements, the vicar of St. John's Church recently played a hand organ in London streets.

HOOVER HALTS LOUVAIN FRAUD

"Teutonic Fury" Inscription
Left Off Library

Secretary Acts in Behalf of Relief Commission

University Given Power to Decide Controversy

LOUVAIN (Belgium) June 29. (AP)—A message from Herbert Hoover apparently has prevented an inscription with the Latin equivalent of "destroyed by Teutonic fury" from appearing on the Louvain library. The balustrade of the library is being completed today without the inscription over which controversy has raged for almost a year.

Whitney Warren, American architect, had argued that the inscription should remain as provided in the library plans, and Mr. Laetius, rector of the university, urged it be eliminated.

RIOT CAUSED
An attempt to raise the balustrade without the inscription on Wednesday resulted in a demonstration during which students and civilians knifed down several of the pillars.

When it seemed that the library would be dedicated on July 4 without the balustrade and with the controversy unsettled a cable message came from Mr. Hoover. As chairman of the Commission for Relief in Belgium, Mr. Hoover granted the university full jurisdiction as to the inscription to be placed on the memorial.

The university owns the library and has undenial jurisdiction in connection with inscriptions, Mr. Hoover said. The educational foundation of the Belgian relief committee approved final jurisdiction by the university at the foundation's December meeting.

PEACEFUL MOVE

"The purpose of this great effort," Hoover's message continued, "has been to make a gift which would be acceptable to the university and a lasting monument to American friendship. Representing the donors of a large share of the funds employed in building the library, I suggest you obtain immediate settlement of the present controversy on lines eliminating war bitterness, reflecting the true spirit of the great educational institution and being in accord with mature public opinion."

A copy of Mr. Hoover's message was given to Mr. Warren. He left an afternoon for Italy and is not expected to return for the inaugural ceremonies.

MESSAGE SENT

MORE THAN MONTH AGO

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—Herbert Hoover's cable to officials of the University of Louvain that they have full power over the inscription to be placed on the new library was sent more than a month ago, although it was made public only yesterday.

In sending it, Mr. Hoover acted as chairman of the Commission for Relief in Belgium, the educational foundation of which took over the building-fund collection some time ago. The cable was sent in response to a query from the library authorities.

Face Prosecutions

STOCKTON, June 29. (AP)—Sheriff Rieck of San Joaquin county and James V. Coates, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, were indicted by the county grand jury here this afternoon on charges of bribery. Two counts were returned against the sheriff and three against Coates.

Both are charged with accepting a bribe from V. E. Fontaine, a private detective who posed as a runner to get evidence. Rieck is charged with having accepted $2500 in market money and Coates, $1000. The grand jury exonerated Fontaine.

Bench warrants for their arrest were issued immediately and bail was set at $5000 each. Fontaine asked that the men be arraigned tomorrow.

His wife and family had been left behind. The young woman attended school here.

BOOSTER SPIRIT SWAYS UPLAND

Three-Day Festival Closes
With Barbecue

Hundreds Added to Chamber of Commerce Rolls

Residents of Entire Section
Get Better Acquainted

UPLAND, June 29.—More than three thousand persons joined in a great barbecue staged this evening by the business men of Upland as the concluding event of a three-day civic campaign which has been in progress since Wednesday, and during which time three hundred memberships to the Chamber of Commerce have been secured.

The business men of the city have been striving to get better acquainted with the citizens residing in the trading area of Upland and for this reason have made an appeal to all to get closer together. The stores have staged bargain sales and citizens generally have caught the booster spirit. The city is decorated and a series of meetings have attracted practically the entire citizenship.

Capt. C. S. Neusbaum, formerly connected with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, has been employed as a sort of evangelist in the field of business and his "punch talks" have been a feature of every gathering during the campaign.

Employees feasted Wednesday at a banquet given in the evening at Davis Cafe at which the various business houses entertained their employees and the part the clerks played in the building up of a community was brought to the foreground, with the result that the help and enthusiasm of the sales people were enlisted for the campaign.

Thursday, the Lions Club held a special meeting at which Neusbaum made the principal talk and, in the evening the series of open-air concerts, which will continue all summer, by the Upland-Ontario Municipal band was opened in the city park.

Today was devoted to the last stage of an intensive drive for members of the Chamber of Commerce. A goodly portion of funds received for memberships is pledged for the development of the airport, which bids fair to be among the best in Southern California. The barbecue and community meeting this evening are one of the largest of its kind ever held in this section. The program was composed entirely of local talent and a variety of numbers was presented.

EVERYONE JOINS HANDS
The service clubs have joined with the business men's organization and the Chamber of Commerce with the result that it is an event which will attract a large crowd.

William Aitchley, nationally known singer, producer and chairman of the three-day program and through his efforts the event has been made a decided success. Everything from clowns to music and cream used at the barbecue this evening have been donated by merchants and citizens.

F. H. McQuillen, known to everyone locally as "The Medicine Man," has been captain-general of the chamber's membership drive with William Springs and James Goodwin as team captains. Community singing was an outstanding feature of tonight's entertainment.

Van Nuys Sewer Plan is Ordered

VAN NUYS, June 29.—Assistant City Engineer L. O. Turner has received orders to prepare plans for the sewer system for the Van Nuys townsite. The sewers will be a part of the system that is to run all through the San Fernando Valley to connect with the existing sewer in the Burbank and Glendale districts.

J. E. Knowlton, sanitary drain engineer, has recommended to the Los Angeles City Council that it provide $428,340 toward the total estimated cost of $222,000 for building the sewer trunk line from Studio City into the Owensmouth district in the western end of the valley. The remainder of the cost is to be raised by the valley voting $150,000, and $200,000 that will be raised by a bond issue on the area to be served.

MALIBU CLUB TO CELEBRATE FOURTH
CALABASAS, June 29.—Plans have been made for a July 4 celebration at the Malibu Lake Mountain Club. A large array of fireworks will be set off at midnight. In the afternoon there will be sailing and canoe races and swimming contests. More than 1000 persons will be included in members and guests who take part in the affair.

All visitors are requested to extinguish cigars and cigarettes as they turn off Ventura Boulevard into the Malibu Canyon. All fireworks that are to be discharged during the celebration will be shot so they will fall into the waters of the lake.

ATTEMPT MADE TO DERAIL FAST TRAIN

BANNING, June 29.—Three Mexican boys may have been responsible for an attempt to derail the crack Southern Pacific flyer here today, although officers who arrested the boys are doubtful of their ability to create such an obstruction as was found on the railroad track.

Charles Blackburn of the city electrical department first saw the obstruction which was made of cross-arms placed across the track with plates of iron between them. It was removed just a short time before the train passed. The Mexican boys were found near by, but declared they had nothing to do with it.

Mystery as to How Body Got Down Into Surf

SANTA ANA, June 29.—Mystery surrounding the death of Ellsworth Houplin, 60 years of age, caretaker at Laguna Beach, deepened today when an autopsy performed at an undertaking establishment here revealed that there was no water in the lungs. The body of Houplin was found floating in the ocean near Laguna Beach Tuesday afternoon.

The contents of the stomach were taken to the Orange County Hospital by Dr. A. M. Thompson for laboratory examination. There was no outward indication that poison had been administered, it was said. Acute dilation of the heart was revealed today but if Houplin died from heart failure the mystery still remains concerning how he got to the ocean. Wounds found on the head were not sufficient to have caused death in the opinion of Sheriff Sam Deming and Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff Floyd W. Howard.

Houplin purchased a small can of ravioli the evening before his body was found, officers learned, but did not eat the food. Houplin was employed as caretaker at the Laguna Beach home of Mrs. J. Dehner of Pasadena.

Trial Shifted to Santa Ana

SANTA ANA, June 29.—Efforts of Miss Frances Rundstrom of Long Beach, to prevent her $22,570 damage suit against A. Kalabek of Orange county from being transferred from Los Angeles to Santa Ana for trial, failed today with the filing of the action in the local court.

Kalabek, claiming residence in this county, stood on his rights to have the suit transferred here, despite the protest of the plaintiff that her witnesses all lived in Long Beach and it would be difficult to obtain their attendance in court here.

Miss Rundstrom's suit is based upon injuries she received last October 15, when her car collided with a delivery truck at the intersection of Lincoln Boulevard and X street, west of the Orange county line. She suffered a fracture of the pelvis and bruises. Her complaint asks $10,000 for past suffering and $10,000 for future suffering.

The balance of her claim is for damage, loss of earnings and medical expenses.

EL MONTE, June 29.—"Where did you go when the defendant stuck you with the pitchfork?" Judge F. C. Wilson asked Jack Messer, dairyman, in Police Court this morning.

"Me, Your Honor," replied Messer; "I went away from there."

Testimony at the trial of George J. Miller, charged with assaulting Messer with a pitchfork, disclosed that after an altercation between the two men, employed at the Harris dairy near here, in which Miller was knocked down by Messer, the former left the house and returned with a pitchfork, with which he jabbed Messer in the back while the latter was washing up after the fray.

Pitchforks were ruled out as unethical weapons by Judge Wilson, who fined Miller $50.

Extensive Advertising to Mope Record Crop in Southland Vineyards

ONTARIO, June 29.—Southern California, in particular, and the State of California in general has one of the greatest grape crops in history, according to Donald D. Conn, managing director of the California Vineyardists' Association, and today growers of this district are preparing to carry out suggestions made to them by Conn in mass meeting, at which advertising was the key note.

According to Conn, there are excellent markets for California's grapes in the East this season. The grape crop is not an absolute necessity, he said, and in order to get the full profit from the extensive crop, Conn urged the growers to co-operate in an extensive advertising campaign for creation of other markets and greater consumption of the fruit.

He indicated that growers' members of the association soon will be asked to give 1 cent on each package of grapes shipped in order to provide an advertising campaign fund.

Growers who send inferior quality grapes to market are just killing the market, he said, in urging them to ship nothing but the best quality they have in the East. This will keep the market price high and pay the growers for their crop.

The Southern California grape industry is on a more substantial basis than in any other State of the Union, according to Conn. This State's investment in the grape industry is $235,000,000, he pointed out, which is the greatest amount of any State.

The city, for several years, has been exacting a high $200 a year from fortune tellers for permission to operate. It was revealed at today's hearing.

(AP)—Jury Pokrajac must hang for the slaying of Elmer Gustafson, Fresno chemist, it was determined late today when a jury found him sane on his plea of not guilty by reason of insanity. A broken bone of the animal penetrated the boy's foot. The lad died Wednesday night in a local hospital following a week's illness. Antitoxin treatment proved unavailing. Funeral services for the lad were conducted this afternoon from the Baptist Church.

GROCERY CHAIN SALES HOLD UP

May Gains of Piggy Wiggy Set at $1,721,623

Increase for Five Months Shows $7,584,334

Units Using Name in United States Total 2700

Steady growth of the chain-store grocery business throughout the United States is again reflected by the gain in sales for May and the first five months of the year over similar periods of last year for the Piggy Wiggy stores operating under patent rights of the Piggy Wiggy Corporation.

Sales for the first five months of 1929 totaled $16,990,000, as compared with $14,990,000 in May, 1928, an increase of $1,721,623, or approximately 11 1/2 per cent, according to a statement released yesterday from the head office of the company at Memphis, Tenn.

Sales for the first five months of the year aggregated $82,307,337, as against $74,622,903 in the corresponding period of last year, a gain of $7,684,434, or more than 10 per cent.

Stores throughout the country using the Piggy Wiggy trade name numbered approximately 2700 and 1186 about this time last year and approximately 2500 with 1000 meat markets. The company derives a royalty of 1/4 of 1 per cent on gross sales of all companies licensed to use its name and certain features of its merchandising equipment. It also operates a factory at Jackson, Tenn., where store furniture and fixtures are manufactured and sold to its licensees.

Piggy Wiggy Western States Company, the Southern California subsidiary, published early this month sales aggregating $1,800,000 for May, as against $1,600,410 in May, 1928, a gain of $199,589, or more than 12 1/2 per cent. Sales for the first five months increased nearly 13 per cent to a total of $9,095,419, over the same period last year.

Dun Says Trade on Sound Basis as Year Turns

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—Dun's tomorrow will say: A half-year that has been featured by various economic phenomena and some unprecedented aspects, is closing with the underlying solidity of business maintained. The general outlook has, in fact, been bolstered by the late readjustment from the unparallel stock-market speculation, which was in striking contrast to the conservative and orderly commercial movements. Disappointments in numerous quarters over the absence of a full and vigorous trade development is tempered by the knowledge that fundamental conditions remain sound and form a strong basis for future progress. Results of the last six months have differed widely in individual lines, but the expansion in certain of the major industries, if not the representative of the situation as a whole, has been encouraging. The time has come when a normal summer contractions of operations in many branches of enterprise is to be expected, yet the let-down in some instances is not as pronounced as was the case a year ago. The most impressive evidence of that phase appears in the relatively high production of steel reflecting the sustained demands from both large and small consumers.

Weekly bank clearings, $9,971,548,000, an increase of $1 per cent over last year.

Union Extends Service Chain

Augmenting its present chain of marine stations along the Alaska and British Columbia coast line so as to better serve the pleasure boats and yachts and the fishing trade in these waters, the Union Oil Company arranged plans yesterday for the immediate construction of marine stations at Albat and Clayquot in British Columbia and at Juneau in Alaska.

At present the Union Oil Company maintains stations at several Alaska points, the principal ones being at Kotzebue, Pelebar, Wrangell and at Anacortes, which was completed a few weeks ago.

Along the British Columbia coast, the Union Oil Company operates fifteen stations besides those at Vancouver and Victoria, all of which are operated under the name of the Union Oil Company of Canada, Ltd.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—A further extension of today's earlier trading in cotton futures was checked by realizing, followed by reaction. Cotton futures sold up to 23 1/2, or 18 points higher on the pretense of the Union Oil Company, an advance of about 374 points from the low level of 22 1/2.

A disposition to take profits seemed to control the market, and cotton prices were lower before yesterday's closing than they were at the start of the session.

THE STOCK MARKET

By CHARLES A. DICK

Professor, Los Angeles State College

NO. 48—ASSIGNMENT OF STOCK

Suppose the owner of stock has sold or desires to sell his stock through a broker; how shall he fill in the assignment blank printed on the certificate? In order to avoid the difficulties connected with lost or stolen certificates, a good plan is to mail the certificate undivided and then to mail under a separate cover and by a different mail a detached assignment form indorsed in blank. If the certificate or the assignment form should then be lost or stolen, nothing could be done with it in the absence of the other document to which it pertained.

BLANK INDORSEMENT

The simplest form of indorsement is the indorsement "in blank," which consists of the signature of the owner, with the name of the new owner and the name of the attorney left blank. When this form of assignment is properly filled out, the certificate may pass from hand to hand without further indorsement, the same as currency or a coupon, or a check drawn to bearer. When the certificate comes into the hands of a holder who wishes to have it recorded in his own name, he signs the name left for the name of the new owner, leaving blank the space for the name of the attorney. The transfer agent, on receiving the certificate for transfer to the new owner, will insert his name in the "attorney" space.

The signature of the owner "must correspond with the name as written upon the face of the certificate in every particular, without alteration or enlargement, or any change whatever." An unmarried woman should therefore have the word "Miss" prefixed to her name on the face of the certificate, so that she may sign her name in this way without the necessity of a notary's certificate that she is an unmarried woman.

FLEDGING REQUIREMENTS

If the name of the stockholder has been misapplied or otherwise incorrectly entered on the face of the certificate, the certificate must be returned to the corporation for the indorsement "Correct name is" and the original transfer agent must countersign the correction.

If an owner of stock wishes to pledge shares of stock as collateral for a loan at his bank, it is probable that the bank will require the indorsement of the borrower.

In order to avoid the risk involved in holding indorsed certificates, the usual custom is to have the borrower sign in blank a detached assignment form for each certificate. These forms are destroyed when the loan is paid and the collateral is returned.

THE INVESTOR

By WILLIAM RUSSELL WHITE

Copyright, 1929, by New York Evening Post, Inc.

Methods of operation, its own appeal to its own class or type of investor. In appraising the merits of any given trust, then, it must be analyzed individually from these various points of view, without any regard to the question of the merit of investment trusts in general.

In a movement that has attained such proportions, involving so many different organizations, each sponsored by a different group of men, it is only natural that some proportion of the total will be in hands less experienced or less informed and its relation to the trusts which at the outset seem to be of doubtful promise there may arise some of our strongest future leaders.

The management of experienced management was stressed by Mr. Smith in alluding to a misunderstanding of his book and in denying that it contained suggestions for limiting investments to common stocks.

"Management, to my mind, is the first essential of the investment trust," he said.

Bearing in mind, then, that such investment trust is formed by a particular group of men to serve a definite purpose, it is evident that the examination of any trust must be made with a view to the sincerity and effectiveness with which it carries out a purpose definitely determined to be useful to the investors it is designed to serve, and the ability and experience of its organizers in the field they have

HIGHER CALL RATE IGNORED

Coast Stocks Advance With Eastern Issues in Face of 8 Per Cent Rate; Merger Yarns Reborn

On the Pacific Coast markets and in New York the speculators accepted 8 per cent call money yesterday with comparative indifference. The fact that prices generally advanced in the face of the highest charge for speculative funds in seven years apparently reflects a complete reversal of attitude, as contrasted with the nervousness and selling that characterized the market on the 25th inst., when 7 per cent money appeared for the first time since 1921.

Eight per cent money, in fact, was generally accepted, partly because of the month-end borrowing requirements, and partly because of the artificial tightness introduced into the money market by the Federal Reserve Bank policy. But the trading public seemed to anticipate a return to easy money conditions after the Fourth of July holiday, and was not worrying over the current tightness of rates.

TIPS CIRCULATE AGAIN

The extent to which public sentiment has switched from gloom to cheerfulness is also illustrated by the revival of merger yarns and the reappearance in circulation of alluring tips and rumors. Foremost so far is the proposed merger of the automobile, public utility and petroleum groups are expected to follow.

While the market was setting off and sentiment generally was bearish, the various consolidations and trades in the making were virtually unheeded, lower, however, the trend toward combinations seems to have been resumed, as is indicated by the Studebaker and Pierce-Arrow deal.

PIERCE ARROW MERGER VOTED

Approves Combine With Studebaker Company

Action Subject to Approval of Stockholders

Fight Lost by Plaintiffs on Dodge-Chrysler Tie-up

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—The Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Company, following their meeting in Buffalo, stated that the directors had approved a merger of that company with the Studebaker Corporation in a new holding company which would take over factories, plants and other properties of the two concerns.

At about the same time Supreme Court Justice Mullin, sitting in New York City, declined to grant an injunction which would have blocked the proposed merger of Dodge Brothers and the Chrysler Motor Company. His imposed conditions upon the corporations, however, which he deemed necessary to safeguard the interests of the stockholders who sued for the injunction.

The Pierce-Arrow-Studebaker combine will bring together manufacturing properties valued at about $100,000,000. The approval of the Pierce-Arrow directors of the merger must be voted upon by the stockholders of the company before it becomes effective.

Reviewing conditions which confronted his organization soon after the World War, Myron E. Forbes, president of Pierce-Arrow, issued a statement in which he declared the company never had been able to utilize its expanded manufacturing facilities and felt that a merger with Studebaker would give the combined company a stronger financial position than had been possible with a smaller output, he added.

Studebaker is under no obligation to proceed with the merger unless at least 90 per cent of the shares of the preferred stockholders and at least 80 per cent of the shares of the common stockholders of the Pierce-Arrow company scheduled to meet July 25, assent to the plan.

SALES LINK AIDED

While, strictly speaking, the plan does not involve an actual merger of the two companies, the Studebaker Corporation, if the reorganization is approved, will throw the weight of its large selling organization behind the new company, strengthening a hitherto somewhat weak link in the Pierce-Arrow organization.

A. R. Ertz, president of the Studebaker Corporation, who attended the meeting of the Pierce-Arrow directors, will be chairman of the board of the new company, and Forbes will be president of the combined company.

Justice Mullin in the Chrysler-Dodge decision directed Dodge Brothers to post a bond guaranteeing nonassessing stockholders of the company against loss through the transfer of Dodge Brothers stock to the new company.

The merger, which was approved by the board of directors of the Dodge Brothers, was brought by Calvin Goddard, a stockholder of Dodge Brothers, who alleged that holders of preferred shares were being deprived of the right to vote and that they feared loss of their investment.

Dodge Brothers through their attorneys denied that and said they had the assent of the stockholders of the company, which is incorporated under the laws of Maryland.

"Select small tender carrots, beets and turnips without peeling them, cut into small pieces and put into a baking dish. Bake in a hydrotherm hot, oven until vegetables are tender, and season with a little salt and butter as served."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question: R. K. asks: "Will you kindly advise the proper diet for one with low blood pressure?"

Answer: One with low blood pressure should live on a well-balanced diet. No special foods are required, but simply good combinations, such as I suggest in my weekly menus. Increasing your physical exercise each day will do more than anything else to bring up your blood pressure. "I have red chills in my head and have cold shivers at times, and have loud noises in my right ear. Am I in that ear, too. The doctor knows into my ear with an electric affair four times a week. What can I do? Will my hearing be restored if I keep up these 'blow-outs'?"

A: Practically all deafness is caused by catarrh of the inner ear. The blowing-out treatment will relieve you temporarily, but it is unwise to continue such treatments unless at the same time you remove the cause of catarrh through proper dieting.

Question: W. J. writes: "I drink several quarts of water during the day, and still I am constipated. Will you explain the reason?"

A: I am sure that the drinking of large quantities of water is often one of the causes of constipation, and therefore cannot assist in their lubricating fluids, and the result appears to be a gradual drying up of the intestinal fluids. To cure constipation, eat plenty of greens, eat plenty of fruit and cut down on the starches.

Q: C. M. asks: "Is celery good for young children and also very old people?"

A: Well-bleached celery is good for everyone. It never creates any digestive disturbances and can be used by anyone from a child to an old person. It is a good food of all kinds, and it is well bleached, as this bleaching removes certain volatile oils that are irritating to the digestive organs.

Q: J. M. asks: "What would cause one's skin to turn dark in color? In two weeks my skin has become a dark brown. Can I do anything to get back a white skin?"

A: If you are not tanned from the sun, your dark skin is probably caused by some form of liver or adrenal derangement. If this is so, the only way to get back a white skin is to take special exercises to stimulate your liver. Supplement these exercises by some kind of manipulative treatment over the gall-bladder and liver area.

Question: Mrs. Edwards will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

HOME MANUFACTURE OF A YOUNG SMARTY

Jimmy is an only child, an only nephew and an only grandchild, which makes a good many things in the following story explicable. Jimmy is 10 and pretty sweet, though spoiled. He is used to having whatever he says and does referred to grandma and commented on in his presence. He doesn't always pretend to notice it, but he has come to the knowledge that what he does at the moment, in fact almost always.

Jimmy isn't the easiest child to get along with. He has a high-bred way of grabbing the best toys and holding onto them and the boy n't does plays with him only intermittently.

"I want to tell you the cute thing Jimmy said this morning to Joe," mother telephoned to grandma. "He told Joe that he didn't want him to come over any more because whenever he did he got too 'damned mad.' Of course it was terrible, but it sounded so funny." Mother's manner shrieks that it wasn't terrible, and Jimmy, who is upstairs, misses none of this implication.

"Damn," heretofore a word of which he has not been self-conscious, because it meant very little to him, now becomes a method by which he stimulates attention. He uses it on every possible occasion and adds some more "damn" words to his collection.

Uncle Frank, who thinks Jimmy a regular he-boy anyway, almost goes into convulsions when Jimmy tries out his vocabulary on him and even goes to the lengths of teasing Jimmy so he'll get mad enough to swear. The whole family is having a lot of fun over it.

All of which at the present moment doesn't lead much of any place, Jimmy is just in the process of being spoiled. All he needs is some time or other in their career and the wise parent simply overlooks it. The more attention, the more he is spoiled, and the more he is spoiled, the more deeply is the child impressed. If he hears swearing frequently at home he will outgrow it as he grows up, and, in fact, it is the child himself who will be the cause of it. We wonder that families don't sense that such methods are the fastest successful way they can employ in making a young smarty out of their hopeful.

Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Monice Ingram and Jack Irving, accused of kidnapping Bobbie Grabbie, 3 months of age, was set yesterday by Municipal Judge Wood for next Monday. Judge Wood set bail at $5000 each, pending the hearing.

Mrs. Mac Grabbie, 407 South Fremont street, the child's mother, charges that she "loaned" him to Mrs. Ingram for one night. Instead of returning him, she declares, the defendants took Bobbie to Anaheim and from there wrote a note of apology. Later the note was turned over to juvenile officers.

CHICKEN AND GRAPE SANDWICH
On slices of toasted white or whole-wheat bread with creamed butter, and then spread with mayonnaise; arrange over this thin slices of white chicken meat seasoned. On top of the chicken place thin slices of peeled and seeded grapes or the Thompson seedless; place a lettuce leaf on the upper slices of toast, trim, cut in desired shapes and serve on leaves of lettuce. Women's Dress Given Plaudits "Women are dressing more sensibly, more hygienically, and that without sacrificing anything to beauty, than for 3000 years past," Dr. Philip M. Lovell told a large audience Thursday afternoon in the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

"To show in everything pertaining to dress women are demonstrating their superiority to the 'stupid sex' of the past, and that the shoe is not the only thing that has been made to fit this torturing apparatus," declared the speaker, as he gave a blackboard drawing of women's footgear of today.

NANCY PAGE
Green Peas Parisienne
Convert Roger to Vegetables
By Florence La Gauche

One of the tricks in cooking which Lois had learned from her association with Nancy was her method of serving peas. When Roger served peas they were not tasteless, colorless affairs. They were tender, tasty and green. They had a flavor all their own. Roger was one of those foolish men who thought he did not like green vegetables, but soon after their return from their honeymoon she surprised him with a dish of green peas Parisienne.

Put 2 cups of shelled green peas into a saucepan with 2 tablespoonful butter, 1/4 cup water, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 3 tiny onions peeled but left whole, hearts of 2 heads lettuce and a small bunch parsley. Cover and cook slowly until peas are tender. Take out the parsley and onions. Add salt, pepper and one tablespoon butter. Serve hot.

If Lois had too hot a fire the peas burned unless she added more water. She tried to avoid this. The best part of the vegetables are the mineral salts and the vitamins. These are dissolved in water. The vitamins are destroyed by the addition of soda. Hence Lois used little water and no soda. Roger passed back his plate for a second helping and Lois knew enough not to say "I told you so." Clever Lois.

FISH SCHEDULED FOR BROADCAST

Golden Trout from Sierras
Tonight's KHJ Feature

Microphone Will Transmit
Its Splashes in Tub

Dedication at KNRC Slated
for Tomorrow Evening

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER
The first golden trout from the icy waters of the high Sierras will be featured on a program scheduled to be taken alive to KHJ, the Don Lee station, from Lone Pine to splash around in a tub so that the vibrations of its finny appendages and tailpiece may be heard on the air.

A special continuity program dedicated to the famous bordering on trout and the highlands of the Sierras in the country bordering on Mr. Whitney will be broadcast.

The program will amass of the trout in the spaces of the trailing, babbling brooks, mules, guides, horses, scenery, fishing tackle, tenes, backpacks, and great mountain peaks and, of course, skillets full of golden trout.

Anyone who hasn't heard a real splash when a trout takes out the line should not fail to catch the broadcast of a trout in action.

MUSICAL BITS
Popular hits from musical comedies will be featured on a program beginning at 7 o'clock. Included will be several from "Vagabond King," "Sonny," "Hit the Deck" and "Good News." The two boys of KHJ will be featured in vocal selections. Immediately after this will follow the KHJ movie review, a regular Saturday night feature.

A balance and colorful program will be sent over the air at 9 o'clock. The KHJ concert orchestra will be heard in "Mill on the Cliff," "First Heart Throb," "Bright Lights," and selections from "The Duchess," closing the program with the march, "Under the Double Decker," and the band, Fritz De Bruin, baritone, and the KHJ mixed quartet will be heard.

DEDICATION FEATURE
The dedication of KNRC tomorrow night will be held between 9 o'clock and 10 o'clock. The next morning, celebrating the acquisition of the station by the Pickwick Radio Company.

The concert will open with Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstances," played as an organ solo by Sibley. The program will include Godwin's string quintet, assisted by two vocalists, Lucy Brightlight, and selections from "The Duchess," closing the program with the march, "Under the Double Decker," and the band, Fritz De Bruin, baritone, and the KHJ mixed quartet will be heard.

Veterans Seek Preference in Civil Service

Officers of the County Council of the United Veterans of the Republic are making preparations for an active campaign favoring passage of a new county law, to be submitted to voters at the fall election, which will give veterans a 10 per cent preference credit when they are seeking positions in the county under civil service examination.

"Nearly all veterans organizations of the county have been seeking enactment of this provision for ten years," said Capt. L. L. McClary yesterday. "We feel that such preference to veterans will merely be a recognition of work they have performed in service to their country."

The United Veterans of the Republic also are calling the attention of former soldiers to the fact that July 4 is the last day on which veterans may claim their property tax exemptions.

So-called race superiority and the segregation of negroes from whites in common carriers, public places and Federal offices were flayed by the three principal speakers at last night's session of the nineteenth annual conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at the Second Baptist Church.

Miss Gretchen McRae, a young negro clerk of the general office of the Department of the Interior, told of segregation among employees in government offices at Washington and the nearby successful fight to abolish it.

"Segregation is an institution just as slavery was," she said. "The effect is to deprive the colored people of their self-respect, give them an inferiority complex and substitute prejudice for their rights. It is cruel, destructive and degrading to all and it must be ended or it will bring about a situation as intolerable as slavery just prior to the Civil War."

ECONOMIC LAWS BLAMED
William Pickens, field secretary of the association, declared that economic laws alone create race problems and so-called race superiority is a myth founded on the different economic conditions of people.

Change the relative economic positions of the various races and those who now are in the lowest condition will become the "superior race" and in three generations you will not be able to tell their descendants from the "superiors" of today, he said.

In light of this situation, he urged race prejudices should be abolished and equality established.

E. G. Pandit, a Hindu attorney, deplored race superiority and distinctions in this country on the ground that the Constitution declares all men equal. Each race is unique and indispensable with its contributions to the general welfare and none can truly claim superiority, he said.

BABY CONTEST DISCUSSED
Delegates yesterday devoted the morning session to a discussion of negro-baby contests. Mrs. Louise Davis of Cleveland, president, Dr. E. B. Du Bois of New York, editor of the Crisis, discussed problems of the publication during the afternoon.

Following addresses by Dr. Elmer Gibson of Los Angeles and Mrs. Jessie Hathcock of Dayton, O., Mrs. Florence Henderson, teacher in the public schools of New York, stated that the New York City Board of Education recognized the educational value of the national convention by granting her leave of absence on full pay that she might come to Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. M. Berry in charge of the baby contest in Los Angeles, outlined the work of conducting the contest which brought the largest returns of any city in the United States.

Today the delegates will be guests of the Los Angeles branch of the all-day automobile tour of the Southland. There will be a musical revue at the Shrine Auditorium at 2 p.m., followed by a dance in Shrine pavilion.

MAID OF ORLEANS

French City Will Celebrate the 500th
Anniversary of Deliverance

Next year the city of Orleans will celebrate with all the pomp and ceremony it can devise the 500th anniversary of its deliverance from the English by the hand of Joan of Arc. Its citizens are already busy with preparations for the solemn commemoration of that marvelous event, but these have not been suffered to interrupt the routine of the homage which Orleans pays yearly to her memory. On the return of the day on which she freed the city, the bishop received from a member of the municipality, since the mayoralty chances to be vacant, the banner of the Maid, and later the garrison rendered military honors to her statue.

All the world knows in outline the story of the quiet peasant girl who when the fortunes of the kingdom seemed at their lowest, firmly declared that she was "sent by God to save France," and who in little more than four months did save France.

Surely she deserves for all time the love and honor of her countrymen, men and the love and honor of all who know and understand the simple grandeur of her nature.

There are few characters more delightfully human than that of the heroic maid as it is revealed to us in many little traits accidentally preserved. She loved her home and her parents. She prayed that she might go back to serve them and to tend their sheep with her brothers and sisters, "who would be glad to see her again." She loved little children. She had a womanly pride in her skill with needle and with distaff. She loved the woods and the birds and the wild creatures, as other saints have loved them, and she loved the sound of the church bells. She had plenty of peasant humor. She laughed at the women who wanted her to hallow their crosses and their robes by her touch. She bade them touch them themselves and they would find them quite as good. She was full of womanly pity for wounded and captive enemies. When she was wounded herself the heroic spirit again with death about her that she told the women about her

"that is flowing from this wound, it is glory." No wonder she could lead men.

Before the court which wickedly did her to death she showed a heroism grander and rarer still. Her native peasant shrewdness made her more than a match for all the prelates, soldiers, statesmen and lawyers arrayed against her. She confronted and baffled them all. She was sweet and saintly nature, or moral splendor of her death.—(London Times.

ESSENTIAL TRUTHS
In proportion as men become more civilized, and learn to think more accurately, and to take wider views of life, just as do they come to value the essential truths of religion more highly while they attach less and less importance to superficial details.—(John Pika.

APOLOGY
One of the neatest parliamentary apologies we have ever heard of was that of an Irish member of the House of Parliament who described another as "not having even the manners of a pig." At the cry of "withdraw" he did so, saying: "I withdraw and apologize, and beg to say that the honorable member has the manners of a pig."—(Exchange.

SAND-LOT DAYS
The most disillusioning thing is to go back home and discover that the distant fence over which you occasionally knocked the ball when a boy, was only sixty-eight feet from home plate.—(Detroit

BUILDER'S PUDDINGS
Mrs. Brown (tearfully): I'm a sorry, dear. I meant this to be a cottage pudding but it wouldn't rise.
Young Hubby: That's all right, sweetest. Let's just call it a flat pudding.—(Brooklyn Eagle.

NEW ENTRY FOR MAGNOLIA ROLE

Laura La Plante Considered Certain for Part; Lasky Signs Noted Parisian Star; Lloyd
Considering Talks

BY MARQUIS BUSBY

LAURA LA PLANTE

She emerged from adolescence a rather amazing-looking young creature with a high broad forehead, a wide mobile mouth, great dark liquid eyes... She was, even at 18, what might be termed a "disturbing" looking girl. Merely by standing tall, pale and hairless, next to the plump and pretty, she was a transformed into a dumpy, rather dough-faced blond. So does Edna Ferber describe Magnolia in her novel, "Show Boat".

Universal has been combining the country for an actress to fit the Edna Ferber character. And there is no one just like Magnolia in pictures.

Apparently Laura La Plante will be awarded the role of Magnolia, one of the most beautiful and most remote like the character but it is felt that screen experience and acting ability are qualities to be considered.

Although the fact is deeply shrouded in secrecy, tests of Miss La Plante in the role of "Magnolia" were sent to New York last night where they will be viewed by Carl Laemmle. It is considered by those in the know that Miss La Plante is almost certain of the role.

Harry Foulds will direct this colorful drama of show-boat life on the Mississippi. Joseph Schildkraut has already been cast as Rival, Magnolia's husband, and John Harrington will portray the tragic love.

Foreign Star Signpost
Maurice Chevalier, a favorite of the Paris music halls and said to be one of the most magnetic artists of the European theater, is coming to America in October to play in motion pictures for Paramount.

This announcement was made yesterday in New York by Jesse L. Lasky, who returned Tuesday from Europe.

The French star is considered one of the greatest artists to cross the ocean for the screen since Emil Jannings came over nearly two years ago.

Chevalier speaks fluent English, according to Lasky, and will be cast in sound productions as well as in silent films. His voice is considered perfect for mechanical reproduction.

All of which indicates that M. Chevalier will be quite an acquisition to the Hollywood foreign colony.

A story for Maurice Chevalier's first American picture is being written in Paris by a famous French dramatic writer with the collaboration of Lasky. It is practically certain that Chevalier may be heard singing in both French and English.

I am tremendously impressed by Chevalier, writes Lasky, "and I believe he will prove one of the most popular personalities ever brought to the screen."

Fred Newmeyer, who for the last four years has been associated with the Harold Lloyd organization, as director of the comedian, is parting company with the latter and will leave Lloyd.

Newmeyer, who directed "Grandma's Boy," "The Freshman" and others, has been loaned on various occasions to other companies, chief among them Paramount, for which he directed Leon Errol and Richard Dix in several pictures.

Recently he completed the direction of the third picture with Reginald Denny for Universal. He again signed with the Laemmle organization to direct Glen Tryon in the production "It Can Be Done," which was prepared for the screen by Edward J. Montagne and Mann Page.

Harold Lloyd, Mildred Davis Lloyd and their daughter Gloria, are spending the summer at the beach. Harold has taken a house next to Norma Shearer's "The Sign of the Cross" at Santa Monica. Harold, however, has little time for swimming.

He is too busy making plans for the picture which will be made with sound devices. Harold, you know, prior to his picture debut, was for a number of years on the stage.

A representative of the Lloyd organization is at present in the East investigating certain new developments in the field of talking pictures.

An Apology to May
It seems, after all, that there will be nothing precipitate in May McAvoy's appearance with Edward Everett Horton on the stage. Two or three days ago I wrote that the tiny Warner Brothers star would appear in Horton's next play at the Vine Street.

May denies that she will appear in the next play as her Warner contract does not permit it at this time. She does, however, hope to try the footlights later. Horton has asked her to appear with him, and is looking for a suitable play for the occasion. May has accepted the invitation but this gala event is still sometime in the indefinite future.

"Tin Pan Alley" Romance
After several months spent on the set of "The Sign of the Cross," Arthur Lubin is back in Hollywood. And the producers have not forgotten him. Lubin has been assigned for the leading role in "The Sign of the Cross" by Sam Seligman for Gainsborough Pictures. Continuity and adaptation are in the hands of Adele Buffington, and Joe Boyle will direct.

"The Sign of the Cross" is a dramatic story of New York's famous "Tin Pan Alley" with Lubin cast as a young composer of jazz, the son of a concert pianist, Emil Chautard and Arthur Housman, have also been named for the picture. It is possible that Pauline Starke will play the leading feminine role.

Lubin is under contract to Albert Lewis of New York, owner of "The Spider." He expects to return to Manhattan in September to start rehearsals for a stage play, "Salvage," written by Hubert Osborne, author of "Shore Leave." Lubin will play opposite Helen Menken.

May Win Long Contract
According to the studio biography of Jack Oakie he found inspiration in Lindbergh's flight for his own projected trip to Hollywood from New York. Lindbergh took a chance and made it—so did Jack Oakie.

Oakie is playing the part of "Sally" in "The Fleet's In," a Paramount picture starring Clara Bow with Mal St. Clair as director. So highly do studio officials regard his work in this picture that Oakie is being considered for a five-year contract.

Before he came to the screen Oakie was a member of several "Paying Shows," the Follies, "Artists and Models" and in "Peggy Ann."

"The Fleet's In," marks his second role in pictures.

With Broad "A"
Louise Fazenda is making her debut in the talking pictures in "The Terror," Warner's all-Vitaphone special. Louise plays an English medium, and she says she nearly had a coughing spell over the broad "A's" and the "beams." She will finish this picture in another week.
